

Vision Critical Heads to Consumer Electronics Show in Vegas

Las Vegas, January 5, 2010 – Members from Vision Critical's sales team left for Las Vegas, today, to attend the 2010 International Consumer Electronics Show \(CES\). CES is the largest technology tradeshow in the world. With a roster of technology clients that include Hewlett Packard, Virgin Mobile USA and Vodafone New Zealand, Vision Critical is committed to staying on top of innovation and keeping a pulse on consumer behavior.

The International CES runs from January 7 to 10, 2010. It features 2700 exhibitors from around the globe, including companies who manufacture, develop and supply consumer technology hardware, content, technology delivery systems and related products and services. The show is in its fourth decade.